We focus on applying traditional herbal knowledge to create products that not only enhance your skin's natural beauty but also inspire you with the raw power of nature. We do this by using only 100% pure natural ingredients. We got our start in 1989 when Dayu Suci and Melanie Templer saw a need to retain Bali's amazing herbal knowledge and traditions. This knowledge was being quickly lost with the advent of modern products containing dangerous chemicals. As demand for traditional remedies declined, the herbs and spices used in these remedies were quickly being lost - further perpetuating the cycle. Dayu, with her extensive knowledge of traditional Balinese remedies, and Melanie, with her never ending quest to discover the wonders of the natural world, quickly rediscovered the amazing benefits of essential oils and other natural ingredients. They started making natural facial care and natural skin care remedies by hand for their loved ones. We have continued their passion today in the hope of sharing their discoveries with you and your loved ones.

Bali's own Valley of the Kings is Gunung Kawi Temple in Tampaksiring. This collection of candi is beautifully situated in a river valley surrounded by rice fields and jungle. This has been one of our favorite day trips for years. Gunung Kawi Temple is a collection of ten candi, created to evoke the appearance of temple fronts and designed to provide residence for the souls of ancient kings. The candi are hewn into the valley walls on both sides of the Pekerisan River. The Gunung Kawi Temple does have an interesting history. Inscriptions over each Candi approximate the date of construction to be in the 11th C. It is believed that each temple served as a memorial to a deified royalty principally because they are shaped like the burial towers, or Candi's, found throughout Central Java. But in Java they are free standing whilst those found at Gunung Kawi are actually hewn relief's in solid rock. While the exact origin of the candi is unknown, there is evidence to suggest that the first set of five were built to honor King Anak Wungsu, whose rule over central and east Bali extended from AD 1050 to about AD 1080. It is possible that one was built for him and the other four for his wives, who would have ceremonially committed suicide after his death.

Description:

High Tea is a meal eaten in the late afternoon or early evening, typically consisting of a cooked dish, bread & butter, and tea. Traditionally, high tea menu consists of sandwiches and scones. But Karma Kandara jazz it up by adding muffin, brownies, biscuit, sushi and even Vietnamese spring rolls with tangy, sweet and spicy sauce. I'd say it's pretty interesting. My favourite delicacies were baguette sandwich with fresh salmon; mango & tuna sushi; Sablé (round shortbread biscuits); and not to forget the dark chocolate brownies which has a 'melt in your mouth' texture. Believe me, it was so good that I'm craving a slice of brownies as I'm writing this. While other items tasted quite good, I'm sure they could do better. Then continue to On a projection of these cliffs lies the sacred temple of ULUWATU. Populated by a friendly tribe of monkeys, PURA LUHUR ULUWATU is one of the most stunning temples in Bali. Here you may see the Kecak Dance Performance. This performance is quoted from the epic of the Ramayana emphasizing the teaching of loyalty of a housewife who is represented by Dewi Shinta. The difference of this performance with the Ramayana dance is the musical instruments used, the music in this performance is the chorus of tens of men singing and moving to create an unequalled vibrant and seemingly living music.

Half Day Uluwatu Temple, Kecak Dance and Beach Dinner (B/D)

In the afternoon, enjoy a pleasant short ride along the hills of Bali's Southern Peninsula. This area, known as Bukit, offers a landscape and topography unequalled by any other region on the island. The majority of lush Balinese tropical countryside owes their fertile soils to the volcanoes that dot the central highlands. Uluwatu Temple's arid-cliffside terrain, formed by millennia of monsoon-tide coral sedimentation, has long been revered as a sacred location. Whilst the Uluwatu Peninsula is well-known amongst surfers for its beautiful-yet-wild beaches, perched in the corner on a sheer cliff lies the highly venerated Uluwatu Temple. Here, hidden amongst the droves of Holy Monkeys that reside in the temple, one shall enjoy the Kecak Dance performance. This epic chapter of the Hindu Holy Ramayana Scripture is melodically portrayed by a troop of pantomime dancers and an acapella choir. The majestic temple serves as the backdrop to a beautiful sunset over the ocean horizon as the Kecak Dance reaches its finale. Truly this is a unique cultural performance that all who visit Bali should see. The tour ends at Jimbaran to enjoy a traditional Barbeque Seafood Dinner served on the beach, before transferring back.
