LOMBOK & GILI ISLANDS

Located near Bali, Lombok & Gili Islands are both worth the visit. Compared to Bali, Lombok has its own unique version of culture and society at a much slower pace. To get here, you can easily catch a plane from Bali for 30 minutes or ride a fast boat for 2-3 hours from Sanur.

Lombok's natural beauty offers volcanoes, islands with pristine white sandy beaches, clear warm waters, and jungle terrain. Not only the natural beauty but Lombok is also blessed by the culture of traditional Sasak villages. There, you can see its unique architecture and textile vendors. Trekking up at Mountain Rinjani (3,726m) with its magnificent volcano peak scenery, especially at sunrise. Mount Rinjani also offers hot springs and a panoramic crater lake that you can enjoy to reward yourself after a tiring trekking trip. Where in Lombok you can also see the beauty of the beach around the famous Mandalika MotoGP Circuit arena.

The sublime Gili Islands are also a worthwhile place to visit. Experience diving or snorkeling, exploring the underwater world of Gili. There are also lots of other diverse marine activities.

Gili islands are blessed with crystal clear water, white sandy beaches and outstanding marine life. Three Gilis located in the North-West corner of Lombok: Gili Trawangan is the largest, most touristic and most developed, Gili Air with its relaxed pace and chilled out vibes and Gili Meno the smallest of the three with its village-like atmosphere. Boating 20 minutes from south west coast of Lombok, you will visit Gili Nanggu, a tiny island with white beaches but note yet untouched by tourism.

KOMODO SPEEDBOAT TOUR

Komodo Islands is a must-visit destination for those who love nature, culture, and wildlife. Komodo Islands is the best place to see the last dragon on earth, the Komodo Dragon.

The park includes the three large islands Komodo, Padar, and Rinca. The park's terrain is uniquely diverse, consisting of a mountainous hillside, tropical rain forests, grass-woodland savannah, and pristine white sandy beaches that harbor rich marine biodiversity. The marine environment in the Komodo National Park is one of the world's richest in flora and fauna and is still relatively undiscovered.

Cruise along the sea and visit the beautiful islands of Komodo, and the pink beach, and trek to the top of Padar Island. Get ready to be amazed by thousands of flying foxes flying over you when you pass Kalong Island at sunset. Explore the incredible underwater life of the Komodo Islands, awed by the beautiful coral and fishes.

Normally, there are two ways to enjoy the Komodo Tour.

The first way is by speedboat. This is the best option for those who have a minimum time of traveling, yet you can still explore lots of popular destinations in Komodo National Park in one day. Note that joining or private tours by speedboat can be chosen.

Tour Highlights:

Visit: Padar Island, trek up and enjoy the spectacular view; Long Pink Beach where you can chill; Komodo island trekking and encounter Komodo Dragons.; Taka Makassar Island, known as the sand island; Snorkeling at Manta Point and Kanawa Island.

The second option is by liveaboard/phinisi. You will be staying for a minimum of 3 days and 2 nights in the boat, sailing through the sea of Komodo National Park and experiencing sleeping on the boat.

JAKARTA

As the capital city of Indonesia, Jakarta is a huge, metropolitan city. It is a hive of activity, a buzzing city and it's full of people! This will be the first thing you notice in the city, especially with all the traffic in Jakarta. Though, regardless of traffic, there's a heap of the best things to do in Jakarta that are well worth a gander if you're visiting for a few days. This sprawling exciting city is the hyper-center of Indonesia and absolutely worth taking time to explore when in the area. There is a wide range of attractions to enjoy from quirky museums to a variety of national monuments, government areas, and business districts.

Jakarta is also a great place to learn more about Indonesia's complicated history, and you can visit a variety of culturally and historically significant locations such as the old town and the port which will give you a glimpse of how the city would have looked in past times.

Have a visit to Fatahillah Jakarta History Museum, Wayang Museum, Museum Gajah, Museum of Fine Arts & Ceramics, Sunda Kelapa Sea Port, Planetarium, Bank Indonesia Museum, Textile Museum, Jakarta Cathedral, Isitqial Mosque, National Monument, and many others. As well as harking back to the days of old, Jakarta is one of the most modern cities in Indonesia, and you can spend time embracing this cutting-edge side of the city at its famous malls, bars, and restaurants. Jakarta is also known as one of the cities that own big shopping malls, for those who want to go shopping it is a good place to visit.

Have a serene time, ride a speedboat from Jakarta and you can visit the Thousand Islands. It is known for great beaches, snorkeling, diving, and a short nature getaway for those who get no time to visit Bali.

YOGYAKARTA

Yogyakarta is a city with cultures and customs as rich as they were centuries ago. This town works like a time machine that will transport you into the past. Yogyakarta offers an abundance of Javanese art, painting, silverwork, batik handcraft, traditional Javanese dances, Gamelan, the wayang kulit (leather puppet) theatre, and other expressions of traditional art that will keep the visitor spellbound.
